St.Gallen, 18 November 2026. Patrick Steiner will take over as Head of the Products & Solutions department no later than 1 March 2027 and will become a Member of the Executive Board of Raiffeisen Switzerland, subject to final approval by FINMA. The department was created on 1 October 2026 as part of the further development of Raiffeisen's organisational structure. It combines the areas of products, market services and customer channels. Together with the IT department, Products & Solutions is responsible for product development and the implementation of innovation and digitalisation projects.

Patrick Steiner has more than 20 years of experience in the banking industry. He specialises in products, digitalisation and customer solutions. From 2017 to 2023, he was Managing Director at UBS. In UBS's global wealth management business, he was responsible for advancing digital products and client processes as well as developing new investment and trading solutions. He has been Managing Director at ZIEL Consulting since 2024, having previously built up the company as Founder and Managing Partner between 2002 and 2016. Patrick Steiner holds a degree in Economics from the University of St.Gallen (lic. oec. HSG).

«The close integration of business and technology is a key success factor in the further development of our offering. In Patrick Steiner, we are gaining a proven leader who brings a wealth of experience in precisely this area. He will play a crucial role in driving the development of new solutions for our customers,» said Dr Gabriel Brenna, Chairman of the Executive Board of Raiffeisen Switzerland.

Raiffeisen: second largest banking group in Switzerland

Raiffeisen is the second-largest banking group in Switzerland and the Swiss retail bank with the closest proximity to its clients. It has over two million cooperative members and maintains more than three million client relationships, including more than 200,000 companies in Switzerland. The 208 legally independent Raiffeisen cooperative banks are locally anchored throughout Switzerland and are members of the Raiffeisen Switzerland Cooperative. The Raiffeisen Switzerland Cooperative assumes the strategic management and supervisory function for the entire Raiffeisen Group. The Raiffeisen Group offers private individuals and corporate clients a comprehensive range of products and services. The central business areas include, in particular, the mortgage business, wealth management and pensions planning and the corporate client business.
